

Table 1: Land Area of Tribal Reservations in Washington State

Puget Sound Region
Tribe	Country	Area
Lummi Nation	Whatcom	21,000
Muckleshoot Tribe	King	3,850
Nisqually Tribe	Thurston	4,800
Nooksack Tribe	Whatcom	2,500
Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe	Kitsap	1,301
Puyallup Tribe	Pierce	18,061
Samish Nation	Skagit	00
Sauk-Suiattle	Skagit/Snohomish	96
Stillaguamish Tribe	Snohomish	40
Suquamish Tribe	Kitsap	7,486
Swinomish Tribe	Skagit	7,169
The Tulalip Tribes	Snohomish	11,500
Upper Skagit Tribe	Skagit	99
Puget Sound Total		77,902
Washington State Total		3,258,656
Western Washington Region
Tribe	Country	Area
Chehalis Confederated Tribes	Grays Harbor/Thurston	4,215
Hoh Tribe	Jefferson	443
Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe	Clallam	12
Lower Elwha Tribe	Clallam	443
Makah Tribe	Clallam	27,950
Quileute Tribe	Clallam	700
Quinault Nation	Grays Harbor/Jefferson	208,150
Shoalwater Bay Tribe	Pacific	335
Skokomish Tribe	Mason	5,000
Squaxin Island Tribe	Mason	1,979
Western Washington Total		249,227
Eastern Washington Region
Tribe	Country	Area
Colville Confederated Tribes	Okanogan/Ferry	1,400,000
Kalispel Tribe	Pend Oreille	4,629
Spokane Tribe	Stevens	154,898
Yakama Nation	Yakima/Klickitat	1,372,000
Eastern Washington Total		2,931,527

Sources: US. Dept of Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs;

Tiller's Guide to Indian Country: Economic Profiles of American Indian Reservations

Indian Reservations and trust lands are scattered throughout Washington State, ranging in size from a few acres, such as Jamestown S'Klallam and Sauk Suiattle, to well over a million acres with the Confederated Bands of the Yakama Nation. In total, tribal Indian reservations and trust lands account for 3.24 million acres in Washington State (Table 1). For purposes of discussion in this report, the State of Washington is grouped into three geographic regions: Western Washington, Puget Sound, and Eastern Washington. Indian tribes are located in 21 of the 39 counties